HOPE

Helping Families to Live and Learn Together

As a parent/caregiver it can be exciting and satisfying seeing our children grow and also challenging and often upsetting when we see them struggling with friendships or making friends. This workshop will discuss the common social challenges, give you the tools and strategies to help build your children's self-esteem and confidence to help them build social relationships and make friends. You will be able to support your children to recognise healthy friendship and know when a friendship is unhealthy.

Topics include:

- Increasing Self –Esteem & Confidence
- Understanding social development in children/Teens
- Recognising social challenges
- Learning strategies to support making healthy friendships
- Discussing on-line friendships
